Next Year..... We can actually say that now and Believe IT! Thanks for a great year. Missed it by that much!
Grace and peace everyone,

It's hard to believe that Lent is almost upon us, beginning on March 2, Ash Wednesday. As we know, the forty days of Lent correspond to the forty days that Jesus spent in the wilderness to fast, pray, and endure the temptations of the devil, all in preparation for his public ministry which would culminate in his death on the cross. Lent encourages us to contemplate our own mortality and sinfulness, and our reliance on God's grace to carry us through and lift us up. There are many ways to remind ourselves of this—fasting and abstinence (giving something up) are two of the more popular. I believe that it's less about what we do than how we do it, that is, the state of our hearts and minds as we do it.

In Isaiah we read: "Why do we fast and you take no notice? Deny ourselves and you pay no heed?" Good questions. Why do we do the things we do during Lent? This begs an even bigger question: who is the God I believe in? Is God someone who cares for me with every fiber of his being, whose joy it is to be an intimate part of my existence? Who walks with me in moments of pain and sorrow and dances with me in moments of joy? Yes, this is the God who stands with us at the threshold of our Lenten journey. A God who has promised to be with us through all the ups and downs of life. We don't need to appease God by any sort of Lenten denial. We do what we do during Lent—or any time—because we are loved. That is the beginning and the end. We came from love, we live in love, we return to love. May our Lenten journey be a sharing of this love with all creation by opening out our depths to him in trust, and may our Lenten practices create in us quiet, restful places where God can refresh and heal us.

Our Lenten journey begins with the ashes of Palm Sunday smeared across our foreheads, reminding us that our journey is not ended until we rise. In his song Ashes, Tom Conry wrote:

> We rise again from ashes, from the good we failed to do.
> We rise again from ashes, to create ourselves anew.
> And if all our world is ashes, then must our lives be true.
> An offering of ashes—an offering to you.
> We offer you our failures, we offer you attempts
> The gifts not fully given, the dreams not fully dreamt.
> Give our stumbling direction, give our vision wider view.
> An offering of ashes—an offering to you.

Blessings for a Holy Lent,

Jeff

In 1990, a young seminary intern named Brad Smith had an idea to create the “Souper Bowl of Caring,” a food collection to serve people in local communities. Since then, more than $100 million of food and cash has been distributed.

This year, more than ever, we are reminded of the need to help our neighbors. According to the “2021 State of Poverty in Ohio” report (published by the Ohio Community Action Agencies), families that were previously comfortable found themselves struggling to fulfill basic needs. One CAA provider stated, “We’re seeing a lot more families who were considered very middle class and were living well within their means with two parents working. And due to COVID, that income has diminished, whether one parent is staying home with the kids or one had hours reduced, etc., they’re living on half their income and struggling. We’re seeing a lot more folks who have never had to ask for help before.”

Once again, Westwood First will collect Souper Bowl of Caring donations for Westfed Food Pantry. The Westfed Food Pantry is a cooperative effort of six Westwood/Cheviot area churches and the Gamble Nippert YMCA. This year we are seeking the following: shampoo, soap bars and pump soap, toothpaste, deodorant, toilet paper, and paper towels. Bring your contribution with you to the services February 13 to March 13, and put your donation in the box in the Narthex. Cash donations are also welcome! Donate money by dropping them in the collection plate or mailing checks to the church (made out to Westwood First) with “Souper Bowl” on the memo line.

If you have any questions, email Wendy Beckman at wbbeckman@gmail.com.

Looking for an opportunity to get involved?
Maybe you could be a Sunday Sexton

Our Sunday Sextons do several things: turn on lights in the narthex and parlor, ring the 10:15 church bell and the bell after Heather plays the prelude during the service, flip a light switch for the balcony stained glass window, light the altar & Christ candles, make sure the hymn #s on the wall are correct, monitor the narthex during service, lock the Harrison side doors at 10:50 and parking lot doors at 11:05, turn out the lights, put out the candles and check pews for papers, etc. after service.

This month’s Sunday Sextons are:
March 6: Patti Grace
March 13: Linda Gardner
March 20: Holly Scheper
March 27: John and Jeri Rathkamp

A big thanks to Bode Olakanmi, Andy Patton, John & Jeri Rathkamp, Patti Grace, Holly Scheper, and Beth Kochheiser for taking on the Sunday Sexton duties in January and February.

If you are interested in helping out, just talk to one of these volunteers to see how easy it is and contact Andy Patton at 513-382-8505 to reserve your spot.

New Church Office Hours

Our volunteer program for staffing office hours has been put on hold until the security system is completed and the volunteers are trained in its use. Jeff, Steve, Chancey, and Heather are checking voice messages regularly.

Presbyterian Women Board Meeting and Gathering
Thursday, March 3; 10:30am Dining Room

A delicious lunch prepared by Circle One will be available fat noon for $5.00. Following lunch we will have an interesting presentation by Megan Fischer, CEO of Sweet Cheeks Diaper Bank. Sweet Cheeks began in 2015 as a dream of Ms. Fischer and is the only non-profit diaper bank in Cincinnati. The mission of Sweet Cheeks is to partner with local social service agencies throughout greater Cincinnati and surrounding counties to provide free diapers for low-income families.

In conjunction with this presentation we would like to encourage you to bring donations of diapers or wipes. The agency’s greatest need is for size 4, 5 or 6 diapers. Come enjoy this gathering and help get to the “bottom” of diaper insufficiency in Cincinnati. (Sorry I couldn’t resist that!).

Everyone is welcome to attend the lunch and presentation. For reservations please contact Diane Ringshauser at dringshauser@gmail.com or 513-923-4123.

Progress continues in working through the initial year with VonLehman as our accounting firm. Both the professional and support staff handling our account have assisted us to modify various practices in positive ways. As expected, there have been a few “bumps in the road”, but responsive efforts have been timely and proactive. The involvement of our congregation and staff in drawing attention to specific occurrences has been key to our implementing productive solutions. Much appreciation to all of you for your active participation with maintaining the financial foundation of our church. Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say rejoice! Let your gentleness be known to all. The Lord is at hand. Philippians 4:4-5.

Circle 1
Monday, March 14; 7:00pm
Home of Mary Lou Huber

Ten Circle One members gathered at the home of Diane Ringshauser on the evening of Valentine’s Day. At this gathering, we firm up plans for preparing and hosting the March 3rd PW luncheon.

This year, our Bible lessons focus on the women named in the genealogy of Jesus, and to date we have studied the significance of Rahab, Tamar, Ruth and Bathsheba in the Biblical narrative.

Our March 14th gathering will be held at the home of Mary Lou Huber. As always, we will have a business meeting, devotions, dessert and a continuation of this year’s Bible Study, “What My Grandmothers Taught Me.” Women looking for a circle are welcome to join us. We gather on the second Monday of the month, usually at 7:00 PM.

Westwood Woman’s Club

Kim Benz, co-owner of One-ders Lavender Farm, will share interesting facts about growing, harvesting, using, and benefiting from the power of lavender. We will have a “Show and Tell” with samples from fields, to bundles, to products made with lavender. Items will be available for purchase.

Please bring a salad or dessert to serve 8-10 people for our buffet lunch. RSVP: Christine Tritschler (347-0338) or frtritsch@fuse.net by Monday, March 14.

She is a woman who somehow finds, within her invaded and colonized life, a way to be strong, wise, courageous, and loud for the sake of others.
